FROM THE EDITOR

The 1965-1966 school year begins with a flag raising ceremony sponsored by the Beta Club.

"... And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave."

Francis Scott Key

THE GENERAL of 1965-1966 is devoted to the theme of "patriotism"--for God and Country--with the hope that it will inspire and challenge the students of William Campbell High School to be loyal and patriotic citizens of our esteemed school and beloved land.

J. Ellen McDowell
Editor-In-Chief

While the flags were being raised the student body stood at attention singing the "Star-Spangled Banner" after which a patriotic program was presented.

"I Am an American"

"... Every drop of blood in me holds a heritage of patriotism. I am proud of my Past ...

"See," said my father, pointing to the flag that fluttered near, "That flag of stars and stripes is yours;

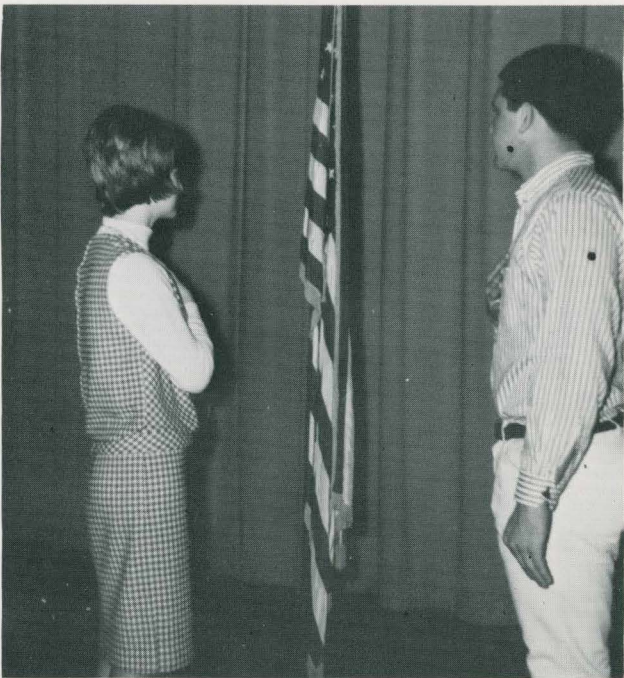

It is the emblem of the promised land."

Elias Lieberman: "I Am an American"

A CHALLENGE FOR PATRIOTISM

"Almighty God, we make our earnest prayer that Thou wilt keep the United States in Thy holy protection; that Thou wilt incline the hearts of the citizens to cultivate a spirit of subordination and obedience to government; to entertain a brotherly affection and love for one another and for their fellow-citizens of the United States at large."

Washington's prayer after Inauguration.

The Civil War Centennial theme was very effectively carried out on May Day, May 7, 1965.

Entertainment for the day included a Virginia Reeldance, a skit based on a scene from GONE WITH THE WIND, a banjo player who sang "Old Black Joe", some children who sang and danced, and several songs by the Glee Club.

The queen and her court wore Confederate ball gowns borrowed from Mrs. Robert J. Lyons of Appomattox, who designed them for the Appomattox Civil War Centennial.

Kathryn Smith, a senior, wrote and directed the skit. Mr. Fred Mitchell, a descendant of the famous "Banjo" Sweeney, entertained the court. Gene Poe and Nancy Coates were the students in charge of arrangements for the May Day.

Mrs. Carolyn Lusardi, Mrs. Christine Crabtree, and Mrs. Hannah Gallier were faculty advisers.

Bobby Yates and Connie Marstin perform for the May Queen and her court.
